Abstract:

The Harley O. Stagers, Jr. Congressional Papers Collection contains the documentary, photographic, and audio/visual record of Harley Orrin Stagers, Jr.'s career in the West Virginia State Senate and the United States House of Representatives. The bulk of the collection ranges in date from 1980 to 1993, with some files dating back to the mid-1970s.

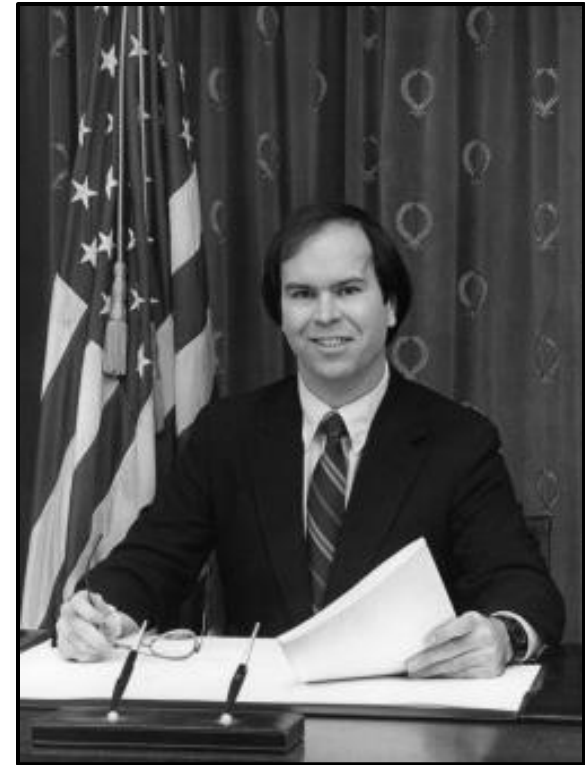

Biography:

Harley Orrin Stagers, Jr. represented West Virginia's second congressional district in the U.S. House of Representatives from 1983 until 1993. The son of Congressman Harley O. Stagers, Sr. (who represented the second district from 1949 until his retirement in 1981) and Mary Casey Stagers, Harley Stagers, Jr. was born in Washington, DC on February 22, 1951. He attended Harvard University for undergraduate studies and received his J.D. from the West Virginia University School of Law in 1977 at which time he was admitted to the West Virginia bar.

Harley Stagers, Jr. was elected to the West Virginia Senate in 1980 and served one term before announcing his candidacy for the U.S. House of Representatives in 1982. As a member of the U.S. House of Representatives, Congressman Stagers, Jr. served on the Agriculture, Veterans Affairs, and Judiciary Committees. He also served on the Select Committee on Hunger (1988-1989) and the Select Committee on Aging (1989-1993).

Following the 1990 census, West Virginia's four congressional districts were redistricted into three districts, with the new second district stretching across the center of the state. A significant portion of Congressman Stagers, Jr.'s constituents were divided into the new first and third districts, including his home town of Keyser, West Virginia. In 1992, Congressman Stagers, Jr. entered the primary for the first district and lost to incumbent Congressman Alan Mollohan.

Upon leaving the U.S. House of Representatives, Congressman Stagers, Jr. returned to his law practice with his brother, Daniel. The firm of Stagers and Stagers operates offices in Keyser and Martinsburg, West Virginia. His sister, Margaret Anne Stagers served as a member of the West Virginia House of Delegates from 2007 until 2014.
